

Christmas Eve 2018

The 5pm Mass having been specially prepared for families with young children, the Church was packed. Several children dressed as lambs or crib figures. A few adults dressed in costume too.

There was a St Joseph and a Christmas tree and a couple of angels. Three teenagers who had attended the recent youth Alpha course spoke of their joyful experiences encouraging others to attend.

On exit after Mass a Christmas story book was given out to each family and individual bags of chocolate with a scriptural text.

100 had been prepared but many more were needed, so chocolates were given out as well.

John 3:16

For God so loved the world he gave His only Son so that whoever believes in Him will not perish but have eternal life.
