

Holy Innocents' Christmas Fair 2024

Saturday 16th November saw the Fr Phelan centre full of many stalls selling goods to raise money for the church. Many prizes were donated for the raffle and many people had made Christmas goodies for sale, plus many scrumdiddliumptious cakes for sale. Many parishioners made fancy goods including youngsters. The hall was packed with visitors and the atmosphere enjoyable. We will find out how profitable the takings were in due course, but here are some of the photos Hazel Quirk took.

Parishioner with grandson who had created handmade jewellery.

A delightful hat and smile greeted would be purchasers

More hand crafts created by children.

The bottle stall, always a favourite

Beautiful handmade quilts and equally lovely other handmade items.

More perfumed goods beautifully displayed

Exquisitely carved wooden items

Toys and games, much to enjoy

Those delectable delicious goodies!

There were many more people, helping and buying, all ready to donate generously towards their church's needs.

Thank you to everyone who made the day such a success.
