

Ecumenical Epiphany Carol Service

Sunday 6th January 2019

The Church quickly filled up.....

Sunday evening saw many parishioners, our friends from the Churches in Orpington, come together for a service with carols and readings. Deacon Barry Chalkley led the service. Several readers from the different churches proclaimed the Word and ministers then gave a short prayer and reflection.

Holy Innocents' school choir gave a beautiful rendition of an old hymn and a new hymn.

Holy Innocents' Christmas celebration choir provided harmony. Bethan Warner had written and composed a Christmas hymn which was beautifully prepared with Bethan conducting.

The service theme was that of Christ Our Light.

Fellowship followed with light refreshments provided.

Happy New Year 2019

Ivor played the organ

The Christmas celebration choir.
